Headline:
Mostly cloudy with patchy rain on Monday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Mostly dry with clear spells, the best of the cloud break from the Central Belt southwards. Showers over far north, heavy at first across the Northern Isles. Patchy rain reaching the northwest towards dawn.

Monday:
Bright with showers for the Northern Isles. Elsewhere, early brightness in south and east, but mostly cloudy with some patchy rain, this most persistent and occasionally heavy across the Highlands.

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Rather cloudy with some patchy rain at times, mainly confined to northwest of the country. Best of the limited brighter spells in the Central Belt and around the east coast.
